Executive Proclamation

State of South Dakota

Office Of The Governor

WHEREAS, Jennifer Lee Whitt did, on April 19, 1987, add to the population of the United States by becoming its newest citizen; and,

WHEREAS, Erin Suzanne Whitt did also, on April 20, 1987, add to the population of the United States by becoming its newest citizen; and,

WHEREAS, Jennifer Lee and Erin Suzanne, in their "infant" wisdom, chose Rob and Jan Whitt for parents, two fine people who have eagerly awaited the arrival of their twin daughters; and,

WHEREAS, Jennifer is already a stalwart citizen of these United States, weighing in at four pounds two ounces; and,

WHEREAS, Erin is also a stalwart citizen of these United States, weighing in at five pounds eleven ounces; and,

WHEREAS, It is fitting and proper for me as Governor to make note of the unique births of these twin sisters, which occurred on two separate days:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, GEORGE S. MICKELSON, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim June 1, 1987, as in South Dakota, and I join Jennifer and Erin's many new friends and relatives, including Fred and Janie Beeman, in wishing them a lifetime of health, happiness and prosperity.

JENNIFER LEE AND ERIN SUZANNE DAY

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Eleventh Day of May, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Eighty-Seven

GEORGE S. MICKELSON, GOVERNOR

ATTEST:

JOYCE HAZELTINE, SECRETARY OF STATE